Protest Against Assessment—A protest, signed Frank L. Parker, has been filed against the assessment made to defray the expenses of constructing a sewer on Irving avenue. The protest recites that the proposed so-called sewer is really a drain, for a pond in the vicinity, being too deep and following wrong lines for a sewer, and declares that the area of assessed property is entirely too small.

Do you feel sleepy and not a bit like working in the afternoon? Perhaps it's because of the kind of lunch you're eating—too heavy and too hard to digest. Why not try the Palace restaurant on Commercial street, where all the baking is done in those famous slow-process ovens, which turn out light, appetizing wholesome things? You'll save money, too. If

The injuries are not expected to work any permanent harm.

All Want the Best—When one goes in search of amusement of a certain kind, as, for instance, a fine line of moving pictures, he wants the best and latest and will not be satisfied with thread-bare and common presentations. In this line, the films now on at the Waldorf are said to be among the real artistic work of that kind programmed in this western country. In all there are six of these realistic strings and all are living portrayals of the leading events of history, such as the "Bennington at San Diego," the "Transfer of Paul Jones," the "Two Champion Wrestling Matches of the World," the "Slums of Paris," "Monsieur Beaucadre, or the Gentleman Friend," and others of equal and remarkable fidelity, make up a series of entertaining items not to be discounted in this city.

Changes Trip Today—The popular Hale Touring Car, now on exhibition at the Star Theatre, will change the itinerary of its trips this afternoon, and carry the delighted Astorian through and around the famous New York village of Esopus, the home of Hon. Alton B. Parker last Democratic candidate for the presidency of the United States; and will then switch off into the regal realms of the Grand Canyon of the Colorado, commonly called to the Royal Gorge, on the Denver & Rio Grande railway, the most thrilling scenic trip on the round earth. Walls of rock spring into the air for thousands of feet and the Hale train crosses the famous Spider suspension bridge, the marvel of aerial structural daring, and enters the famous Georgetown Loop, one of the most stupendous feats of railway engineering on the Continent. The trip shown today will be followed by this wonderful exhibit until Wednesday next.

Interesting Relic of Early Days in Astoria Brought to Light—Ticket of Democratic Party Thirty-Four Years Ago.

Charles Wright, Jr., of the Hotel Occident, is always finding some old and interesting relic about the old hostelry, that brings to mind the men and incidents of the good old days in Astoria and Clatsop county; his latest discovery being a ticket, of Democratic persuasion, containing fourteen names, anyone of which will recall to the older heads and hearts of this community, reminiscences of varied and happy sorts.

The Astorian re-produces the ticket as nearly as it was up in those days, and sends it out on its errand of suggestion and pleasant memory. It is headed by the identical flag used on the old time ticket and the reproduction is almost perfect. It is as follows:

DEMOCRATIC TICKET
